Suspicious Vehicle stop leads to 4 in custody for drug possession, possession of burglary tools, and probation and parole violations

1-10-12 1:00 p.m.

On 1-7-12 at around 1020 p.m., a Lakeport Police Sergeant was patrolling in the area of 1200 block of Craig Ave. when he observed a vehicle pull out of a secluded area at the dead end of Craig Ave. The vehicle appeared to be suspicious to the sergeant based on the commercial area, time of day, and recent burglary reports in the area. A traffic stop was conducted and 4 occupants were contacted. The driver, Francisco Cervantes, 30 years old from Santa Rosa was found to be unlicensed and on parole for vehicle theft. The vehicle was occupied by three passengers, Samantha Sullivan 21 years old, Leslie Spadoni 34 years old, and Celeste Delasantos 32 years old, all from Santa Rosa. Sullivan was found to be a convicted felon on probation for burglary, and Spadoni was recently released from parole for possession of stolen property.

Further investigation revealed numerous keys, punch type tools, radios, and other items used to commit thefts located throughout the vehicle. Suspected methamphetamine was located in passenger compartment of the vehicle.

All four suspects were arrested and booked at the Lake County Jail for possession of burglary tools, possession of illegal drugs.
