Saturday, February 18, 2012

On Saturday, 2-18-2012, at approximately 1700 hours, an unknown older white male, in his 50s to 60s, with black and grey combed over hair and a mustache, attempted to lure two small children into his vehicle on Lakeshore Blvd. in the City of Lakeport. The vehicle was described as an olive, O.D., green 1960's Military-style pickup with a light tan canvas top, possibly a Jeep M715 1 ¼ ton military cargo truck, or similar, with large off-road tires.

The suspect was unsuccessful in his attempt and fled the scene north bound on Lakeshore Blvd. when the children alerted their parent. Anyone with information as to the identity and/or whereabouts of the suspect or vehicle, or any sightings of the same, should contact law enforcement immediately.
