UPDATE ON INVESTIGATION OF SUSPICIOUS SUBJECT WHO ATTEMPTED TO LURE CHILDREN

From Chief of Police Brad Rasmussen

February 23, 2012

Based on a high volume of citizen reports of sighting of the vehicle involved in this incident, the Lakeport Police Department (LPD) has developed significant leads toward the identification of the involved suspect. Based on the current status of our investigation, we believe we have located and identified the vehicle but have not yet positively identified the suspect. The investigation is still ongoing and we are unable to provide further detail at this time but will provide additional information to the public when possible.

The LPD sincerely thanks the media for their coverage of this incident and our local citizens who provided us with information. In addition, the department thanks our dedicated officers who have continually conducted detailed investigation and followed up on many leads over the past week.
