MISSING “AT RISK” ADULT

Thursday, February 23, 2012

On Thursday, February 23, 2012, at approximately 8:00 pm, the Lakeport Police Department received a report of this missing “at risk” adult male:

The subject was last seen by a family member at the intersections of 3rd and Park Streets, on 02-23-2012, at approximately 2:00 pm.

The subject suffers from a mental condition and has not been taking his medication regularly, which could result in his disorientation and bizarre behavior. The subject is typically non-violent and will likely speak to strangers. The subject may be trying to get back to his residence in Moses Lake, Washington.

Anyone with information in this matter is asked to call 911 or their local law enforcement agency, as the subject has been entered into the Countrywide Missing Person database.
